Apps for Democracy. DC's Office of the Chief Technology Officer (OCTO) is currently soliciting feedback from all District of Columbia residents regarding the types of technologies they use and what technologies they would like to see used in DC in the future. Their plan is to create a better 311 service request system based on this insight. They have set up a simple insights portal as part of their Apps for Democracy "Community Edition" citizen engagement campaign, and hope that you will spend a minute to submit some insights that will benefit everyone. The insights portal can be accessed at <http://insights.appsfordemocracy.org>. If you know of another organization or individual that might make a valuable addition to this insights collection initiative, please forward this message to them. The full Apps for Democracy website can be found at: <http://www.appsfordemocracy.org>.

Department of Health - Request for Information. The District Department of Health (DOH) administers the District's Community Health Care Financing Fund (the "Fund"), which holds the proceeds from the sale of the Tobacco Settlement Asset-Backed Bonds. DOH has launched the Capital Health Project, to improve the health of District residents by judiciously investing dollars from the Fund in the health care system and health-related services. The first two rounds of Capital Health Project grants were focused on increasing access to primary, urgent and emergency care by supporting development and expansion of health centers and hospital emergency departments. DOH is now seeking input on the components of a future Capital Health Project round focused on promotion of health and wellness. DOH will release a Request for Information (RFI) specifically soliciting information from community groups, exercise and nutrition professionals, the technology community, clinical providers, the academic community, the food service industry, and other interested parties regarding the most promising programs and approaches for: 1) maximizing utilization of health centers; and 2) promoting exercise, nutrition and other elements (in addition to health care) that are essential to wellness/maintaining good health. The RFI will be released on June 15, 2009. The deadline for submission is July 10, 2009. Submissions should be in accordance with the format, and responsive to the questions, outlined in the RFI. To obtain the RFI and for
